

due Wed, April 14 before 9 am

(please PRINT your name)

ASL CELEBRATES NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK 2004 DAY 2: LEGAL MOVIES

Did you know that the Library has many legally-themed movies on Reserve? Here's a list of a few of them – but unfortunately, the movie names have been scrambled. Using the letters given, can you identify these movies?

- 1) This 1996 movie is about a porn king who fights for First Amendment issues.
PLY PORN, LEVY, FALTER

- 2) This 1995 movie pits a nun between a murderer on death row and the family that he killed.
MAD ANGEL WAN KID

- 3) This 1997 movie makes a lawyer promise not to fib for 24 hours.
ARIA RILL

- 4) An Amish boy hides from a murderer in this 1985 flick.
WET SINS

- 5) This 1989 film shows a bystander to a murder afraid to testify, for fear his family may be a target of the mob.
WEPT FIRST SCENE

- 6) A somewhat ditzy beauty queen goes to Harvard Law School in this 2001 comedy.
LONG & BADLY, ELLE

- 7) This 1993 thriller accuses a woman of killing a man to inherit his fortune.
I ENVY COED OF BED

- 8) An altar boy is accused of killing a priest in this 1996 film.
ME FRIAR PAL

- 9) The 1973 law school classic movie about Harvard, school, and relationships.
HE CHEATS A PREP

Hint: The Library has a paper list of all of our Reserve materials – including our video list – at the Circulation Desk!