

Local Lawyers

On your first day at your new job, you've been told to introduce yourself to the other members of the firm, spread out over two floors (108 and 109 are on the first floor) in the building. But unfortunately, the notes of introduction were very cryptic. Can you match the three men (Adam, Charles, and Eric) and two women (Beth and Diana) to their legal specialty, law school, and office?

1. Charles, who graduated from Tennessee, works on the same floor as the man who graduated from West Virginia.
2. Beth, who did not graduate from Appalachian, is in Room 230.
3. Eric, who practices criminal law, does not work on the first floor, and he did not graduate from West Virginia.
4. Diana, who works in Room 219, does not work on tax or wills, nor does she graduate from Kentucky (but that person does work on the second floor with Diana).
5. The man who graduated from North Carolina, who works on the second floor, went to high school with Diana, who does not write contracts.
6. The man in Room 109 writes wills, but did not graduate from West Virginia.

	Contracts	Criminal Law	Family Law	Tax	Wills	Appalachian	Kentucky	North Carolina	Tennessee	West Virginia	108	109	215	219	230
Adam
Beth
Charles
Diana
Eric
108
109
215
219
230
Appalachian
Kentucky
North Carolina
Tennessee
West Virginia

Using that grid, fill in the box below:

NAME	LEGAL SPECIALTY	LAW SCHOOL	OFFICE ROOM NO.
Adam
Beth
Charles
Diana
Eric			