What's New in the Library?

- Extended hours for the ASL Library continue through May until the end of finals. Students with a valid ID card will have 24-hour access to the building until 10 pm on Friday, May 11. Our Circulation and Reserve Desk hours remain the same.
- Our "summer hours" schedule officially begins on May 12. Hours that our staff will be here during the summer will be:

Monday through Friday	9 am – 6 pm
Saturday and Sunday	Closed

Please note that we will not be staffed on the following days:

- Saturday, May 12 (Graduation)
- Monday, May 28 (Memorial Day)
- Friday, June 1 (Library staff training day)
- Wednesday, July 4 (Independence Day)

Our web site (at <http://www.asl.edu/library/hours.htm> ) has a complete list of our summer hours. At this time, access for summer students has not yet been determined. We will post that information soon. We'll also be around for reference questions, so give us a call (the phone number is (276) 935-6688).

Other News

- Thanks to all of those who participated in ASL's National Library Week celebration! If you missed our daily web site postings, you can find information about the week – including our puzzles and a list of winners – at our NLW web page at <http://www.asl.edu/library/nlw.php> Thanks again to LexisNexis and Westlaw for donating prizes.
- A few last-minute items:
  - Please be sure to pay all overdue fines before you leave town!
  - If you have lost anything in the Library, check at the Circulation Desk. Anything not claimed by Memorial Day will be donated to charity (or discarded).
- If you somehow missed our ongoing announcement of the CALI authorization code, here it is one last time: [not in online version!] Sign up for an account at <http://www.cali.org/> and get access to hundreds of tutorials on dozens of legal topics. If you'd prefer to work from a CD, you can check one of ours out at the Circulation Desk for three days.
- We know many of you will be sad to be away from Grundy and the Library resources this summer, but what about your electronic access?

Lexis: Current 1Ls and 2Ls can go to <http://www.lexisnexis.com/lawschool/tps/content.asp?pid=312> to register for full-use summer access for externships or unpaid legal jobs (please do so before June 1, or your access will be limited to job searching databases).

If you're graduating, go to the same web site listed above, and you'll have bar exam access to the LexisNexis database until August 1. At that time, your LexisNexis ID will expire permanently (so be sure to use up your rewards points before then!).

Westlaw: Westlaw did not respond to our request for information. If they provide this information sometime in May, we'll post their reply on our web site at <http://www.asl.edu/library/>

- We know that passing the bar is a cause for celebration – especially if you've already failed twelve times (and failed a different state's bar six times). But when one applicant finally passed the written examination he was still denied admission, because he attempted to cheat three times, he made false statements about another bar exam attempt, and falsely claimed to have dyslexia for several other testing opportunities. See the DC bar's successful argument denying admission in In Re Sukhbir Singh Bedi, 917 A.2d 659 (2007).
